A message from our Pastor

As I sit and write this, my heart is broken. Bishop Kevin Birmingham was called home to God; he was 51 years old. Instead of celebrating his birthday (October 7), we prepared for his funeral. I still cannot even believe that I am writing those words.

Bishop Birmingham was truly a kind soul. He had a wonderful way about him that put people at ease as soon as they met him. At functions he would often have the words “Maintenance Man” as his title on his name tag, which also spoke volumes about his sense of humor. As many of you know, if you were ever at one of his masses here at the parish, he loved to poke fun at me – never Father Matt – just me. I think it gave him a chuckle to know he could do this to the pastor, and in doing so he really embraced the meaning of brotherhood of our priestly family here with me and Father Matt.

Family was very important to Bishop Birmingham. Not only did he come from a big family, he created “families” within the circles that he served and worked. Vicariate IV was his family and this past summer he brought all the staffs together for a picnic at St Giles to meet one another and celebrate the work that we do. Bishop Manz was there, and he had a great time talking with people and talking about his transition to retirement; it was one of the last times many of us saw him. At the time, it was a seemingly ordinary day acknowledging the continuity of God’s work in this corner of the Archdiocese.

One of the things Bishop Birmingham missed most when he was the secretary to Cardinal Cupich was working in parish life – because to Bishop Birmingham, parish was family. He was truly happy being part of parish life again with his work in the Vicariate and even more so being part of the St. Paul VI family as our bishop in residence. He loved being asked to call Bingo at the Block Party and had it marked on his calendar for next year. We will be sure to honor his memory and joie de vivre in calling out those numbers and passing out the saint candles!

This column was supposed to be announcing to the parish that Bishop Birmingham was starting his new assignment with Vicariate VI and would be moving out of the rectory in Riverside on November 1. I was trying to come up with some witticism about the rectory being quieter without him or how I wouldn’t have to worry about when I could do my laundry, or if he would eat all the chocolate donuts and cookies that came to the rectory before I got any (his sweet tooth rivaled my own), but the truth was, I was going to miss him. It has been very nice to have another priest in the rectory these past two years. Even though he was quiet at home, his presence was felt, and he never hesitated to stop by to say “hi” or “see you later” as he was coming or going.

Please keep his mother, his brothers and sisters, nieces, nephews and all the rest of his extended family, his brother priests and bishops, the Cardinal, his Vicariate IV team and all those who knew and loved him in your prayers as these next days and weeks will be difficult as we adjust to life without him here with us. Eternal rest grant unto him O Lord. And may perpetual light shine upon him. And until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of his hand Kevin, my bishop, my brother priest and my friend.

Fr. Tom May, Pastor

A message from our Associate Pastor

Please pray for the Synod this month. The numbers and detailed program of the next General Assembly on the Synod on the future of the church, to be held in Rome from October 4 to 29, 2023.

The full list of participants, which has been updated and is still subject to change, includes 464 people, 365 of whom – including 54 women, a historic first – are eligible to vote.

In all, 82 women will be present at the event. As well, 15 Eastern Catholic Churches will be represented. The voice of the Church across five continents will be carried by delegates from 36 bishops' conferences of Africa, 32 of Europe, 24 of the Americas, 18 of Asia and 4 of Oceania.

They are joined by some 20 heads of dicasteries of the Roman Curia, and 52 members nominated directly by the Pope.

In addition to 12 fraternal delegates from other Christian denominations, the assembly will be supported by some 60 facilitators and experts, to ensure the smooth running of the meetings. The basic question for the Synod: How does this “journeying together,” which takes place today on different levels (from the local level to the universal one), allow the Church to proclaim the Gospel in accordance with the mission entrusted to Her; and what steps does the Spirit invite us to take in order to grow as a synodal Church?

Addressing this question together requires listening to the Holy Spirit, who like the wind “blows where it wills; you can hear the sound it makes, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes” (Jn 3:8), remaining open to the surprises that the Spirit will certainly prepare for us along the way. Thus, a dynamism is activated that allows us to begin to reap some of the fruits of a synodal conversion, which will progressively mature. These are objectives of great importance for the quality of ecclesial life and for accomplishing the mission of evangelization, in which we all participate by virtue of our Baptism and Confirmation. Here, we will indicate the main objectives, which decline synodality as the form, the style, and the structure of the Church:

- recalling how the Spirit has guided the Church’s journey through history and, today, calls us to be, together, witnesses of God’s love;
- living a participative and inclusive ecclesial process that offers everyone—especially those who for various reasons find themselves on the margins—the opportunity to express themselves and to be heard in order to contribute to the edification of the People of God;
- recognizing and appreciating the wealth and the variety of the gifts and charisms that the Spirit liberally bestows for the good of the community and the benefit of the entire human family;
- exploring participatory ways of exercising responsibility in the proclamation of the Gospel and in the effort to build a more beautiful and habitable world;
- examining how responsibility and power are lived in the Church as well as the structures by which they are managed, bringing to light and trying to convert prejudices and distorted practices that are not rooted in the Gospel;
- accrediting the Christian community as a credible subject and reliable partner in paths of social dialogue, healing, reconciliation, inclusion and participation, the reconstruction of democracy, the promotion of fraternity and social friendship;
- regenerating relationships among members of Christian communities as well as between communities and other social groups, e.g., communities of believers of other denominations and religions, civil society organizations, popular movements, etc.;
- fostering the appreciation and appropriation of the fruits of recent synodal experiences on the universal, regional, national, and local levels.

Synod members will then alternate between sharing in small groups in the five official languages (Italian, Spanish, English, Portuguese and French), and the general congregations, from Monday to Saturday.

In all, there will be 14 meeting times for small groups (circuli minores) of around 10 people, and 21 general congregations in Paul VI Audience Hall, where the seating arrangement is designed to facilitate listening and participating.

Sundays October 8, 15 and 22, as well as Friday October 27, are days off.

From October 5 to 7, synod members will focus the first part of the instrumentum laboris, the working document, published on June 20. On October 9, they will elect the members of the Commission for the Summary Report, and the members of the Commission for Information. From October 9 to 12, they will deal with the second part of the document. From October 13 to 17, they will focus on the third part, and from October 18 to 21, on the fourth and final part.

A number of public spiritual events are planned: a pilgrimage (the location has not yet been announced) on October 12, a prayer for migrants and refugees in St. Peter’s Square on October 19, and a rosary in the Vatican Gardens on October 25. Masses are also scheduled in St. Peter’s Basilica on October 9, 13, 18 and 23.

On October 22, 24 and 27, the Commission will meet to draw up the “summary report” – the equivalent of the final document of this assembly. The draft of the first part of this report will be read at the general meeting on October 23. The draft of the second part will be read on October 25. At each stage, participants will be able to react and send their opinions to the General Secretariat.

The full text, finalized on October 27, will be read on October 28 and presented by the 364 members entitled to vote. The meeting will conclude with a closing mass on October 29 at 10am in St Peter’s Basilica.

A second General Assembly is scheduled for October 2024.

Fr. Matt Nemchauský, Associate Pastor

Prayer of Generosity

“Lord Jesus, teach me to be generous. Teach me to serve as you deserve, to give and not to count the cost, to fight and not to heed the wounds, to labor and not to seek to rest, to give of myself and not ask for a reward, except the reward of knowing that I am doing your will.” - St. Ignatius of Loyola

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

2023 LEGACY PLANNING

Priests have dedicated their lives to the ministry of God's children, serving our needs as Catholics without asking for anything in return. Now, it is our turn to show our love and care for their ever-faithful support. Please consider including a legacy gift for Priests' Health and Retirement to support the healthcare needs of our active priests, as well as the medical and housing needs of our retired priests.

For more information, please call Priests' Health and Retirement at 708.449.8026. If you would like to make a gift today, please visit prmaa.org.

PLEASE HELP WITH OUR WATER MAIN REPLACEMENT FUND

As hard as we try to be proactive and to plan for Parish improvements, on July 5th, we experienced a water line break that feeds into St Mary Church, Parish Center, and School. The large hole and the heavy equipment you may have seen in front of the Church were a part of the line replacement. Unfortunately, this was not a planned project, and this expense was not included in our budget for the year.

We had a $25,000 “leak” that was not covered by our insurance. If you would like to contribute to help offset the cost to fill the fund you can scan the QR code, go online to our Fill the Fund page, place it in the weekend collection, or drop it off at the Lyne Center.

We thank you in advance for any support you are willing to provide.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH

"Come to me all that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest." - Matthew 11:28

In a time of crisis, most people feel overwhelmed by many emotions: confusion, fear, anger, guilt, shame, doubt, depression, hopelessness, anxiety and more. When the crisis involves abuse (physical, emotional, verbal, financial or sexual), they usually feel completely alone. Often, victims are afraid or embarrassed to tell anyone; they fear no one will understand. They may think God has abandoned them. But God is there to offer strength and guidance.

You and your family deserve to be safe and loved in your home. Sometimes bad things happen in good families. Yelling, hitting, shoving, insults, not sharing income.

If you are experiencing or using these behaviors at home or living in fear, change is possible. You can be safe and bring peace to your family.

Find professional assistance by calling the National Domestic Violence Hotline, 1-800-799-SAFE (7233). Chat with a service provider and find the domestic violence services nearest you. If you are in immediate danger, call 911.

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

The National Eucharistic Revival designated by the USCCB draws to a close the Year of Diocesan Revival and begins the Year of Parish Revival. This period will last from the Feast of Corpus Christi 2023 to July 17, 2024. This means that individual pastors around the world will engage their staff and parishioners with community-specific activities and events throughout the year.

The Holy Spirit's call to renewal can be broken down into four invitations based on the pillars of the Revival: reinvigorate worship, create moments of personal encounter, engage in robust formation, and send Catholics forth as missionaries.

St. Paul VI Parish will host events such as catechetical formation on the Real Presence of Christ, opportunities to better understand and enter more deeply into the Paschal Mystery through the celebration of the Mass, and extended opportunities for Adoration and Reconciliation. Be sure to check the bulletin and our website for more information.

Please mark your calendars for:

- October 17- Fr. Timothy Anastos, Kerygmatic Eucharistic Speaker, will speak to our parish at 7pm in St. Mary Church.
- October 19-26th- Blessed Carlo Acutis Eucharistic Miracle Exhibit will be on display at our parish. Please look for more information on our website.
