A message from our Pastor

In this Sunday's gospel, we hear a powerful message from Christ as he sends the twelve disciples out: "Do not go into pagan territory or enter a Samaritan town. Go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

One of my aunts used to say, "Take care of your own house first." There is wisdom in those words, and it is exactly what Jesus was asking his disciples to do – put our own house in order before we begin inviting others to join us.

This is not about dusting and vacuuming before company arrives. Jesus knows that a gathered family, with all its members, is a strong entity. There is an invisible bond that exists that is extremely difficult to completely sever, even when disagreements or conflicts arise. There must always be proverbial doors left open and members who continually search out and invite lost members back. I am sure that every single one of us has experienced this kind of separation in our own families – a son or daughter, brother or sister, aunt, uncle or cousin who just doesn't come around anymore due to something that happened, be it sickness or conflict.

But have you experienced a homecoming? There is great happiness when that person returns. Think of the parable of the Prodigal Son – the Master is overjoyed that his lost son has returned. The difference between today's gospel and the Prodigal Son gospel story is that Jesus is sending his disciples out to actively find lost brothers and sisters and bring them back home, instead of the lost one finally coming home when he literally has nowhere else to go.

Who are our lost brothers and sisters? We know there are many missing as evidenced by the empty pews in Church each week when we gather to celebrate with our Lord Jesus. How are each one of us trying to get our lost members back into our family of practicing, faith-filled, joyful disciples of Christ?

As you gather this weekend to celebrate Father's Day with your families, maybe the Holy Spirit will create an opportunity for you to invite someone back to the fold. Think of how overjoyed our Brother and Father will be!

Fr. Tom May, Pastor

A message from our Associate Pastor

Father's Day can be a beautiful holiday, a day to celebrate your father or to be celebrated as a father. For many, though, this is a painful day, as they remember their late fathers, grieve their broken relationships with their fathers or their children, mourn their lost children, or lament the children they've been unable to have. If Father's Day is hard for you, it may help to find some saints who can walk with you in your particular struggle. You are not alone. Meg Hunter-Kilmer of Aleteia has more about saints that can help.

If you're estranged from your father

Bl. Jarogniew Wojciechowski (1922-1942) lived with both parents until he was 11. Then his alcoholic father abandoned the family, leaving his wife a single mother. Jarogniew had recently begun attending the Salesian youth center, where the priests offered him fatherly love and wisdom. Before long, Jarogniew had to drop out of school and get a job at a pharmacy to help support his family. When the Nazis invaded Poland, the Salesian youth group was disbanded, but many of the young people continued to meet in secret—an act of resistance against the Nazis. Jarogniew was arrested with four friends and spent two years in prison before being martyred.

If you feel you're a disappointment to your father

St. Alphonsus Liguori (1696-1787) was a brilliant Italian bishop who eventually became a Doctor of the Church. His father Giuseppe was a sea captain, and was displeased with his small, weak, asthmatic son, ridiculing him throughout his life. Knowing that his son would never succeed in the military, he set Alphonsus up to be a lawyer; when Alphonsus (by then a successful lawyer) chose to leave behind the practice of law to pursue the priesthood, Giuseppe was disgusted. Alphonsus's response? "I have no father but God." Giuseppe then tried to manage Alphonsus's ecclesiastical career and continued to be frustrated by his son's desire to be meek and poor. He was finally satisfied when he heard his son preach with great power and listened to the people calling him a saint.

If you've lost a child to miscarriage or stillbirth

Bl. Frédéric Ozanam (1813-1853) is best known as the founder of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. He married at 28 and doted on his wife Amélie; together, they experienced the anguish of losing their first two children to miscarriage. After their first loss, they spent some time apart as Amélie attempted to recover at her parents' home; Frédéric wrote her almost daily until he was able to rejoin her. His beautiful letters speak of his sorrow, his longing for his wife, and the consolation he found in the Eucharist. The couple ultimately had a daughter, Marie, on whom Frédéric doted until his death from consumption at only 40.

If you're mourning the loss of a child after birth

Servant of God Takashi Nagai (1908-1951) was a Japanese doctor and a convert to Catholicism. He raised two children and buried two more, both daughters. Nagai's second child had been born just before Nagai went to war, and died (at 18 months) before his return. Likewise, he hardly had a chance to know his third child, another daughter who died shortly after birth. On August 9, 1945, Nagai's wife was killed in the bombing of Nagasaki. In reflecting on her death, Nagai took great comfort in the thought of his two little daughters welcoming their mother home. "I could see the two spirits run joyfully and cling to the sides of their mother's spirit newly ascended into heaven, and I looked forward more than anything else to the day when my own spirit would ascend to join them."

If you're estranged from your child

St. Abraham Kidunaia (267-366) was a monk in modern Turkey and the adoptive father of St. Mary of Edessa. Mary lived as an anchoress until a wayward monk manipulated her into sleeping with him. Though Mary was truly a victim of clerical sexual abuse, she blamed herself for the abuse. She ran away and became a prostitute, leaving her father to mourn her loss and long for her return. After two years, Abraham got wind of her location and went to find her, leaving his hermitage for the first time in 20 years because his little girl needed him. He paid to spend the night with Mary, then went up to her room and fell on his knees, begging her in tears to come home. Because her father's love showed her the Father's love, Mary agreed and soon became a miracle worker, a testimony to God's tremendous mercy and healing power.

If you were never able to conceive

Ven. Pierre Toussaint (1766-1853) was born into slavery in Haiti and eventually taken to New York City, where he became a hairdresser to New York's elite. After he was freed, he purchased the freedom of Juliette Noel, a young woman whom he then married. Though the two were married for 40 years, they were unable to have children. They adopted Pierre's infant niece, in whom he delighted, fostered several children, and became philanthropists with Pierre's earnings and investments.

If you're parenting alone

St. Louis Martin (1823-1894) had nine children with his wife St. Zélie, though only five survived to adulthood. When their oldest daughter was 17 and their youngest (St. Thérèse) just 4, Zélie died, leaving Louis to raise the girls without her. He moved the family to Lisieux to be near Zélie's brother and sister-in-law and continued to care for the girls for the next decade until dementia caused the exchange of their roles, leaving his daughters with the responsibility of caring for him.

If you placed a child for adoption

St. Michael Nguyễn Huy Mỷ (1804-1838) was a Vietnamese husband, father, and mayor of his village who was tortured three times in place of his father-in-law. He was orphaned at 12, married at 20, and had eight children. When he was arrested, his 12-year-old daughter visited him in prison, as did his wife with their newborn. Huy Mỷ said goodbye to his children (and to the six remaining at home), entrusting them to his wife to care for since he could no longer raise them. He was later martyred alongside his father-in-law.

If your father has passed away

St. Lydwina (1380-1433) was a Dutch woman who was injured while ice skating and spent decades in agony from her injury. Though at first, she nearly despaired over her chronic illness, she ultimately found joy in suffering alongside Jesus, particularly in the spiritual ecstasy that she often experienced. But the loss of her kind father (so unlike the mother who treated Lydwina like a burden) threatened to rob her of the peace she'd found. Lydwina was so distraught that she was simply unable to entrust his soul to God. But in her grief, she was consoled by the Blessed Mother and ultimately came to find peace in that suffering as well.

2023 LEGACY PLANNING

“The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest.”
(Mt 9:37-38)

Priests have dedicated their lives to the ministry of God’s harvest, serving our needs as Catholic laborers without asking for anything in return. Now, it is our turn to show our love and care for their ever-faithful support. Please consider including a legacy gift for Priests’ Health and Retirement to support the healthcare needs of our active priests, as well as the medical and housing needs of our retired priests.

If you would like more information on how to make a QCD gift to St. Paul VI Parish, please contact Jane Birmingham at 708-447-1020 or jbirmingham@stpaulviparish.org.

Prayer of Generosity

Lord Jesus, teach me to be generous. Teach me to serve as you deserve, To give and not to count the cost, To fight and not to heed the wounds, To labor and not to seek to rest, To give of my self and not ask for a reward, Except the reward of knowing that I am doing your will.

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

This weekend on the Feast of Corpus Christi, the National Eucharistic Revival designated by the USCCB draws to a close the Year of Diocesan Revival and begins the Year of Parish Revival. This period will last from the Feast of Corpus Christi 2023 to July 17, 2024. This means that individual pastors around the world will engage their staff and parishioners with community-specific activities and events throughout the year. The Holy Spirit's call to renewal can be broken down into four invitations based on the pillars of the Revival: reinvigorate worship, create moments of personal encounter, engage in robust formation, and send Catholics forth as missionaries.

St. Paul VI Parish will host events such as catechetical formation on the Real Presence of Christ, opportunities to better understand and enter more deeply into the Paschal Mystery through the celebration of the Mass, and extended opportunities for Adoration and Reconciliation. Be sure to check the bulletin and our website for more information.

Please mark your calendars for:

- October 17- Fr. Timothy Anastos, Kerygmatic Eucharistic Speaker, will speak to our parish at 7pm in St. Mary Church.
- October 19-23rd- Blessed Carlo Acutis Eucharistic Miracle Exhibit will be on display at our parish. Please look for more information in the bulletin and on our website.

SERVICE OUTREACH

How can I volunteer to serve others? Is there a group at St. Paul VI Parish that helps others outside our parish?

These questions may come to mind when you see and hear of hardships that others in our community and in the world are enduring.

The St. Paul VI Service Outreach Committee (SOC) focus is to inspire and lead the parish faith community in ministering to those in poverty, service members in the military, the elderly, community families and the environment. Visit our page on the St. Paul VI website, see what we have done, projects that are ongoing and how you can help.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES (CC) - TUESDAY SUPPER

CC Cicero began the Tuesday Supper program at the beginning of the pandemic in October, 2020. The geographic area that is served is mostly the near west suburbs of Berwyn, Cicero, and South Oak Park. The CC clients served are seniors and the working poor. St. Paul VI Parish is a monthly sponsor. The Service Outreach Committee coordinates a supper on the 3rd Tuesday of every month; different menus are planned. Thank you to all who have helped us to help others, especially those who help on a regular monthly basis.

Volunteers are needed on the 3rd Tuesday of every month

- Cooks & Bakers – Prepare food for 24, ready to serve in disposable trays delivered between 4:45 – 5 pm to St. Mary's Parking Lot near the entrance off of Herrick Street.
- Drivers – needed at 4:40 pm to meet at St. Mary's Parking Lot to load up prepared food and drop off by 5:30 pm at the CC Cicero location where the food is served.

Our next supper will be on Tuesday, June 20th. Check the SignUpGenius link for more info: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/904054eaea62aaaf1-catholic60#/>
