THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. - Jn 3:16-17

A message from our Pastor

Happy June! It seems hard to believe that in the next couple of weeks we will be wrapping up our second year as St. Paul VI Parish. To me, this past year has seemed a little bit more “normal” as we have been able to resume so many activities with few, if any, Covid restrictions.

Speaking of that, the Archdiocese has announced the return of the distribution of the Blood of Christ, the communion cup. Many people have asked if the Cup would ever come back to Mass after the pandemic and I honestly was not sure what the answer to that question might be – and now we have it! We will begin offering the Precious Blood at all Masses beginning next weekend, June 10 - 11, the Feast of Corpus Christi. We will begin with two stations at each worship site at every Mass. This is a good time to remind everyone that reception of the Body of Christ is full participation in the Eucharist, meaning it is both Body and Blood received. Partaking in the cup is a fuller identification with the invitation, take and eat, take and drink. Just as before the pandemic, we support each person’s individual decision to partake or not in the cup.

Please watch your mail for our Year End Appeal. We are projecting a deficit and need everyone’s help to fund the gap. Our biggest shortfall surprisingly was the Christmas Collection. Our fiscal year ends June 30, so think of this as a Christmas in June gift!

Please mark your calendars for Sunday June 25th, when we will celebrate the 70th anniversary of the dedication of Mater Christi Church (June 28, 1953). There will be a blessing and reception following the 11:00 AM Mass. Watch the bulletin and website for further details in the next couple of weeks.

Finally, I am very happy to announce that the Parish hired a new full-time Music Director! We are very excited and blessed to have Aniello “Nello” Barone join our wonderful staff in mid-August! Born and raised in Melrose Park, Aniello “Nello” Barone completed his bachelor’s degree in Music Education at Wheaton College and went on to teach general music at St. Eugene School in Norridge, serve as organist at St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church in Lisle, and accompany the Downers Grove Choral Society in Downers Grove. In 2019, Nello moved to Kansas City, MO, to pursue his masters in Vocal Performance and graduated in 2021 with his Masters of Music. He remained in the Kansas City metro for four years, serving first as the Associate Music Director at Cornerstone Presbyterian Church in Leawood, KS, and eventually as the Director of Music Ministry at St. Peter’s Catholic Parish. In his free time, Nello enjoys good coffee, reading, traveling, composing, watching soccer, serving others, thoughtful conversations, an occasional cigar, and learning how to box. He speaks conversational Italian and would love to practice with somebody! Nello asks for prayers as he begins his leadership role at our parish. He is honored to serve as the Director of Music at St. Paul VI Parish and looks forward to serving our community.

He wanted to share one of his favorite Scripture passages as it sums up how his faith and love of music guide his days:

“Sing to him a new song; skillfully play with joyful chant. For the Lord’s word is upright; all his works are trustworthy.” Psalm 33:3-4 (NABRE)

A message from our Associate Pastor

Today we celebrate Trinity Sunday. Soren and Ever Johnson from Aleteia help us to understand the Trinity as a family. As newlyweds 20 years ago, we spent zero time thinking about what the Holy Trinity—whom the Church celebrates on today's Solemnity—meant for our marriage or dreams of starting a family. Whatever the doctrine of the Trinity had to say about the dynamics of the inner life of God, we left that to the theologians. For us, each day became a blur of diapers, dishes, commutes, and bills.

Five kids later, every aspect of our lives seems shot through—illuminated, blessed, ennobled—by the Trinity. As a family, we've consecrated ourselves to the Holy Trinity. We strive to do life in a "Trinitarian key." Over dinner, we try to connect our kids' questions about our society's toxic "culture of the Big Me" with insights found in God's own life and identity.

Like any family, we faceplant all the time. But we keep getting up and inviting the Trinity to sustain us. Together we ask the Trinity for healing and grace, and we've even taken to calling our home—our "domestic church"—a "Trinity house."

So how did this turnaround happen?

For the longest time, it seemed the holiness of God's life was distant from our family. Sainthood might be within reach for martyrs, solitary medieval mystics, and clergy, but not for our young, chaotic family.

Over time, we came to see how wrong we were. We realized that our messy little household already had a big head-start—because our family and the Holy Trinity share a stunning similarity: we are both a "communion of persons."

"The Christian family," the Catechism declares, "is a communion of persons, a sign and image of the communion of the Father and the Son in the Holy Spirit." In our family life, the "procreation and education of children" can "reflect the Father's work of creation." Our family is "called to partake of the prayer and sacrifice of Christ" as well as the "evangelizing and missionary task." (2205) Rather than being distant, these dynamics of the Trinity already belong to our family.

We're not trying to sell you on some positive-thinking mantra, that by repeating "my family is a little icon of the Trinity," you can trick your mind into thinking that your family is like God. No. What we're saying is that the Church teaches that your family is already an icon of the Trinity.

"Families, become what you are!" Instead of trying to find your family's identity in busyness, comfort, screens, or getting into the best schools, become what you are. Instead of comparing your family to others, become what you are.

Become more like God's communion of persons: loving, self-giving, other-centered, available, receptive, interdependent, bonded, and creative. Like the Trinity, don't be content with an inward focus, but reach out to your neighborhood, your parish (a "family of families"), and the world.

In daily, practical ways, we can align these Trinitarian attributes with our family's communion of persons—when we honor the Sabbath, listen attentively to our spouse, respond lovingly to our children's needs, linger over a delicious dinner, lead the family in the evening Rosary, do the chores, host neighbors, or roll up the sleeves for a family service project. In these and many other ways, our families can partake in the joy of God's own life.

Twenty years into our marriage, we no longer think of the Solemnity of the Holy Trinity as a blip on the liturgical map. We have accepted the challenge to become what we are, to conform to the image we bear, and yes, even to do tonight's dishes, to the glory of God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

To unite your family even more with the Holy Trinity, consider the following prayer:

Most Holy Trinity, thank you for the gift of our family. Heavenly Father, you created us in your image and welcome us as your beloved children. Jesus, you serve us with your life, death, and resurrection in the ongoing sacraments and life of the Church. Holy Spirit, you listen to our prayers and intercede for us. Lord, strengthen us as we seek to welcome, listen to, and serve one another with greater love each day. Heal any wounds that prevent us from sharing your life-giving love. Show our family how to more faithfully reflect your image in our home, relationships, and work. We invite you to dwell with us in our home—our Trinity House—as we seek to love one another as you first loved us. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

2023 LEGACY PLANNING

Have you considered a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD)?

A QCD gift (a.k.a. IRA charitable rollover) allows individuals age 70½ or older to authorize their IRA administrator to make a direct transfer of funds from their IRA to qualified charities, tax-free. This way of giving does not generate taxable income, which may lower your annual income level. If you are age 72 or older, the amount you transfer may count towards your required minimum distribution.

If you would like more information on how to make a QCD gift to St. Paul VI Parish, please contact Jane Birmingham at 708-447-1020 or jbirmingham@stpaulviparish.org.

Prayer of Generosity

Lord Jesus, teach me to be generous. Teach me to serve as you deserve, To give and not to count the cost, To fight and not to heed the wounds, To labor and not to seek to rest, To give of myself and not ask for a reward, Except the reward of knowing that I am doing your will.

Sir Knight Steven Lifka and Sir Knight Walter (Wally) Warachowski awarded the Fourth Degree

Congratulations to Sir Knight Steven Lifka and Sir Knight Walter (Wally) Warachowski of St. Paul VI Parish's Bishop Ketteler Council 1628 who made their Fourth Degree on Saturday May 20, 2023. The Fourth Degree is the Patriotic Degree of the Knights of Columbus. We members are committed to the preservation of our Church, our Order and to the many nations where Knights serve. We serve as examples of Christ's presence in the world. At some point in our lives, there comes a time when we realize that our Christian duty extends beyond how we lead our families and into how we serve our fellow man.

We also congratulate our Brother Wally who was selected as the Class Candidate from among all of the candidates because of his unending commitment to the Knights, our parish, those most in need in of our local communities and to our honored veterans at Hines VA Medical Center. Vivat Jesus!
