A message from our Pastor

Tomorrow we will celebrate the 4th of July! I hope to see lots of friendly faces as we march in the Riverside and North Riverside parades. This is always one of my favorite events of the year! Walking the parade routes through our beautiful communities is always a way for me to see so many parishioners wishing everyone a "Happy Fourth!" It is an event like no other.

I will tell you that after this past year's experience of trying to unify three communities and congregations, I have a newfound respect for our founding fathers and the hard work, dedication, patience, and persistence they exhibited in wrangling the thirteen colonies together. They built a framework that while not perfect has stood the test of time for their vision of a place where life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness could exist. We are a work in progress, and it is constant work, but when we do get it right, it is amazing!

The 4th of July is a special time to celebrate all that we are and to reflect on what this country means to us. It is also a time to rededicate our resolve to work toward that more perfect union for all our citizens. Let us pray that we will have the courage to confront the imperfections of our democracy and make the changes necessary to truly make this country a beacon of justice, peace, and freedom for the world.

Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord.

Psalms 33:12

"Eternal God, stir our minds and stimulate our hearts with a high sense of patriotism on this Fourth of July. May all that this day symbolizes renew our faith in freedom, our devotion to democracy, and redouble our efforts to keep a government of the people, by the people, and for the people truly alive in our world.

Grant that we may highly resolve on this great day to dedicate ourselves anew to the task of ushering in an era when good will shall live in the hearts of a free people, justice shall be the light to guide their feet, and peace shall be the goal of humankind: to the glory of your holy name and the good of our Nation and of all mankind. Amen."

(Prayer offered in Congress by Chaplain Rev. Edward G. Latch, D.D. July 3, 1974)

Fr. Tom May, Pastor

A message from our Associate Pastor

On the 4th of July, we commemorate the signing of the Declaration of Independence by the 13 American colonies from British imperial rule. Nicholas Senz of Aleteia tells us about one of the signers. Looking at that venerable document, we see affixed to the end a number of signatures. John Hancock famously dwarfs the others—likewise, the names of some of those men have had a larger stature in history compared to their fellows. While we all remember John Adams and Thomas Jefferson, names like Caesar Rodney or Button Gwinnett are less well-known.

One signature, in particular, should be of interest to Catholics: that of Charles Carroll, the only Catholic to sign the Declaration of Independence. His story can tell us much both about the American founding and about the beginnings of the Church in the United States.

Charles Carroll was born in 1737 in Maryland. While the colony was originally founded as a haven for Catholics, by Carroll's time Catholics were not allowed to hold office or even vote. (A 1704 statute in Maryland placed these prohibitions into law in order to "prevent the growth of Popery in this Province.")

Read more: Did you know it was once illegal to be a Catholic priest in NYC?

While he was prevented from exercising these civic rights and duties, he was nonetheless able to exercise considerable influence thanks to one key factor: He was the richest man in the colonies, having a net worth with a modern-day equivalent of nearly half a billion dollars! He held a 10,000- acre estate and was an investor in various capital ventures.

His estate also included more than 1,000 enslaved persons, although Carroll maintained opposition to the institution of slavery, calling it "a great evil," and supported its abolition. In contrast to many of his contemporaries, Carroll refused to break up families, supported the education of enslaved children, and once proposed a bill that would require all enslaved females to be freed at age 28.

As the tensions between the colonists and the crown grew, Charles Carroll became one of the most prominent voices calling for independence. He engaged in the practice popular at the time of writing pseudonymous newspaper tracts (as Alexander Hamilton, John Jay, and James Madison did under the name "Publius" in what came to be remembered as the Federalist Papers), writing under the name of "First Citizen." Soon his identity was discovered, and he became famous as a representative for the cause of independence.

Carroll served at several committees and conventions in Maryland before being selected as one of Maryland's delegates to the Continental Congress of 1776. He was chosen by Congress as part of a group to convince Quebec to join the revolutionary cause. As a French speaker and fellow Catholic, he seemed ideally suited.

The quest did not ultimately succeed, despite the presence of the formidable Benjamin Franklin, as well as a Catholic priest—Charles's own cousin, John Carroll, who would later become the first Catholic bishop in the new nation and the first Archbishop of Baltimore.

July 4, 1776 was actually the date that Charles Carroll was elected to the Continental Congress. How, then, could he have signed the Declaration of Independence? Wouldn't he have still been in Maryland on that famous date? Contrary to popular belief, July 4 is not the date that the Declaration of Independence was signed; it's the date that the final wording of the Declaration was approved. The copy of the document with which we are familiar—written in fine calligraphy and signed by the delegates—was signed on August 2, 1776.

Thus, "Charles Carroll of Carrollton," as his signature reads, was able to append his name to that famous manifesto. In fact, Charles Carroll was the last living signatory, after both John Adams and Thomas Jefferson died on, of all days, July 4, 1826—the 50th anniversary of the Declaration's approval.

For the next several decades, Charles Carroll served his new country. He was a member of the Second Continental Congress, a member of the Maryland State Senate, and the first United States Senator from Maryland. All this after at one time not even being able to vote!

Carroll died in 1832 at the age of 95. He is buried in the chapel on the family estate at Doughoregan Manor in Maryland.
