A message from our Pastor

I am pleased to finally be able to announce that the bell, bricks, and benches from the St. Hugh campus in Lyons now have a permanent home on the Mater Christi campus next to the St. Hugh Faith Formation Center. As you may recall, these items were removed from the campus prior to the property being sold.

The bell was originally located in the steeple atop the church that was built in 1925. Somewhere between 1991 and 1992, the steeple was deemed unsafe and was removed from the roof; the bell was put into storage on the campus. For the parish's 75th Jubilee in 2000, a prayer garden project was begun that would include a permanent ground level home for the bell surrounded by memorial bricks and benches purchased by parishioners.

Sometime between 2004 -2005 it appears that the project was finally completed. After St. Hugh Church was closed and the decision was made to sell the St. Hugh property, a determination was made to remove the bell and bricks and benches and bring them to the Mater Christi campus to be installed near the newly renamed St Hugh Faith Formation Center.

Bryant Rouleau (facilities manager) and A&B Landscaping did a wonderful job of working together to design and build a beautiful and peaceful space for all our parishioners to enjoy now and for generations to come. The total cost of the project was $16,700 and was paid from the proceeds of the sale of St. Hugh. There will be some additional landscaping done in the future near the space.

I want to thank everyone, especially our St. Hugh families, who have waited so patiently for this project to be completed. It is my and Fr. Matt's hope that this space will be a symbol of how we can honor the past while continuing to move forward building the new reality of St. Paul VI Parish together.

Please join us for the dedication of this new prayer garden on Sunday, August 27 at 2:00 PM. It will be the kick-off of our parish block party!

A message from our Associate Pastor

This morning we celebrated the Feast Day of Sts. Martha, Mary and Lazarus. This feast reminds us of two important aspects of the Christian life: be a friend to God and be a good host. Our friendship with God is about keeping our relationship open and life giving. Being a good host is something that I have witnessed many times at the St. Mary's rectory with Chef Fr. Tom and something I look forward to see at North Riverside's 100th Anniversary. Sarah Robsdottir of Aletheia has more to say about being a good host. From Rachel Ray to Mother Teresa, I need lots of help to be a hostess.

"So who are you," a good friend asked me recently, "Mary or Martha?"

We were discussing that morning's Scripture readings — the story in which Martha of Bethany runs around serving food while her sister Mary simply sits and spends time with Jesus.

"I'm Martha-all-the-way," my friend said with a sigh, referencing her hard-working "Type A" tendencies — tendencies I've always admired and tried to emulate, because I'm definitely not a Martha by nature. But unfortunately, that doesn't make me a Mary by default. Just someone who's really good at avoiding housework.

So speaking as someone who's had to strive to cultivate the awesome qualities of both Mary and Martha — and yes, Martha had awesome qualities; Jesus would have gone hungry without her! — here are some tips I've swiped from the many Marys and Marthas God's sent my way over the years:

1. Before your event, pray like Mary: In the days and weeks leading up to your gathering, offer up a prayer any time the special day comes to mind. Sounds simple but in a noisy world, finding time to pray is often hard. A Mary God brought my way recently is St. Alphonsus de Liguori. His book How to Pray at All Times is on my nightstand and while its wise suggestions are countless, the first chapter is calming my nerves about holiday preparations. "God wishes us to speak to him with confidence and familiarity," is the chapter's title and that alone says so much. In the first few pages, Liguori focuses on God's nurturing qualities as emphasized in Isaiah 66: "As one whom the mother caresses, so will I comfort you."

From entrusting Immanuel with serious fears like family tensions erupting, to tiny details like a whispered "Don't let me forget to buy ..." on the way to the store, the book's been encouraging me to confide in God in a more frequent and familiar way. As Liguori writes: "Bear well in mind that you have neither friend, nor brother, nor father, nor mother, nor spouse who loves you more than God." [Note: Immanuel means "God with us" because he is!]

2. Prepare like Martha (ahead of time): A champion Martha in my life is a homeschooling mother of nine, who at the time we met was finishing a Masters in Theology — yep, my old friend Julia is a classic Martha (and I mean that as a compliment). I'll never forget the time Julia invited the parish over to her house for a potluck, something she did monthly. Rather than running around filling punch bowls and wiping countertops, Julia relaxed on the couch and chatted with guests ... now that I think of it ... maybe Julia is a Mary after all!

Regardless, as someone who had only ever hosted in a frenzy, I took note of Julia's simmering crockpot, stack of paper plates, and cooler of self-serve drinks.

"Ahh," I thought, "she prepared everything yesterday."

Needless to say, I stole Julia's idea and now when I play hostess, people probably think I'm a Martha too — boy, are they wrong.

But I haven't just stolen Julia's ideas when it comes to party planning. Rachel Ray and Martha Stewart have a way of making what can often be a stressful endeavor fun. Subscriptions to their magazines are always on my Christmas wish list, and because of these two ladies, my hallmark pigs-in-a-blanket recipe is often paired with something that sparkles. Rachel Ray once suggested hosting an entire meal by serving only easy appetizers — I got rave reviews for that one. And Martha Stewart — the name alone ... she's gotta be a Martha — has a great piece on her site this month about hosting a "Friendsgiving" — swiping that one as well.

3. Finally, visit like Mary: The beautiful Christian tradition in which I was raised emphasized letting others see Christ in me. In Sunday School we often sang "This little light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine ..." and while I love this tradition and still hold it close, Mother Teresa is my all time Mary. She taught me to see Jesus in the face of my child, the stranger and the guest at my table: "Each one of them is Jesus in disguise," the saint famously said.

So how will I treat Jesus when he sits at my table this holiday? Will I ignore him in favor of basting the turkey?

I hope not. I hope to sit down and take in his beautiful face. I hope to spoon him the mashed potatoes that have been sitting in my crockpot since that morning because even if I'm not a natural Martha or Mary, I'm faking it all the way. Of course, "Mary chose the better part when she chose [Christ]" but since I want food on the table when my guests arrive, I'll agree with Cardinal Anastasio Ballestrero, the former archbishop of Turin: "In our house there is room for Martha and room for Mary, and we must occupy both places. We must be Mary because we are welcoming the Word, and we must be Martha because we are receiving the Son of Man."

PLEASE HELP WITH OUR WATER MAIN REPLACEMENT FUND

As hard as we try to be proactive and to plan for Parish improvements, on July 5th, we experienced a water line break that feeds into St Mary Church, Parish Center, and School. The large hole and the heavy equipment you may have seen in front of the Church were a part of the line replacement. Unfortunately, this was not a planned project, and this expense was not included in our budget for the year. We now have a $25,000 “leak” that is not covered by our insurance. If you would like to contribute to help offset the cost to fill the fund you can click on the QR code, go online to our Fill the Fund page, place it in the weekend collection, or drop it off at the Lyne Center. We thank you in advance for any support you are willing to provide.

SERVICE OUTREACH

How can I volunteer to serve others? Is there a group at St. Paul VI Parish that helps others outside our parish?

These questions may come to mind when you see and hear of hardships that others in our community and in the world are enduring. The St. Paul VI Service Outreach Committee (SOC) focus is to inspire and lead the parish faith community in ministering to those in poverty, service members in the military, the elderly, community families and the environment. Visit our page on the St. Paul VI website, see what we have done, projects that are ongoing and how you can help.

SAINT KATERI'S CLOSET

We are still accepting First Communion outfits for our St. Kateri's Closet. We are looking to build a closet of dresses and suits for children and parents to shop and borrow for this special occasion. Items can then be returned freshly laundered for the next family to use.

There is no cost to the families. Donations can be dropped off at:

St. Hugh Faith Formation Center
2400 S. 10th Ave., North Riverside

St. Paul VI Parish Office (Lyne Parish Office)
40 E. Burlington St., Riverside

Questions? Contact Chris at 708-224-9993 or jcvalfred@outlook.com

Please help The St. Mary Garden Ministry feed the hungry.

If you cannot feed a hundred people, then feed just one... Mother Teresa

How this works:

We give you free vegetable and herb plants to grow in your own garden.

You donate what you grow to Share The Harvest, an ecumenical ministry that supplies fresh produce to local food pantries.

You deliver what you grow to St. Mary Garden Ministry volunteers at St. Mary Church parking lot on Monday mornings by 9:30 a.m. from mid-May through late October.

Please contact Sallie Boge for complete details at gardenministry@aol.com
