A message from our Pastor

This weekend we welcome all of the families and their children who have registered for the 2022-2023 St. Paul VI Children's Religious Education Program, as classes begin today. We are blessed to have over 200 students registered so far, many who will be preparing for and receiving the sacraments of Reconciliation, First Communion and Confirmation this year. Just like our school campus, the St. Hugh Faith Formation Center will be a busy place, and how wonderful is that? If you have not yet registered your children, there is still time to do so. Please call the Parish Office at 708-447-1020 and someone will be happy to assist you.

Do you know someone who has expressed an interest in learning more about the Catholic faith? Please encourage them to sign up for our RCIA program that will be starting in a couple of weeks. Just as it is important to pass the faith on to our children, it is equally important to help all those who are seeking to find a relationship with Jesus Christ on their faith journey.

Speaking of finding - do you know a family member, friend or neighbor who has not returned to Mass since the COVID shut down? Please reach out and encourage them to come back to Mass. Offer to pick them up and go back to church together. Sometimes all it takes to get one of our missing friends back into the pews is a friendly offer of accompaniment.

As is always the case when you try and thank everyone who helped pull off a successful parish event, you miss people. The Parish Block Party that was held on Sunday August 28th was a wonderful event. A big overdue thank you to the Village of North Riverside for their support and sending representatives from the Fire and Police Department. The kids loved the big trucks! Also, thank you to Tony Stankus for the donation of all the signage at the party.

On a final note, I would be remiss to not call attention to the anniversary of the tragic events of September 11, 2001. Let us remember all those who lost their lives that day. Let us remember all of the families and friends that have lived every day since missing a loved one. Let us remember all of the first responders who rushed toward those in need. And at this time when our country seems so divided by political discourse, let us remember what it felt like to be united.

Fr. Tom May, Pastor

A message from our Associate Pastor

Over the centuries there grew a custom of devoting certain months of the year to specific spiritual themes. September became known as the month of “Our Lady of Sorrows.”

Initially this might seem like a strange designation, as Our Lady of Sorrows is usually connected to Jesus’ crucifixion, which in the Church’s liturgical year is celebrated in March or April. Philip Kosloski of Aletheia has more about Our Lady of Sorrows.

However, early on there developed a feast on September 14 named “The Exaltation of the Holy Cross.” The Saint Andrew Daily Missal explains, “Originally this feast celebrated the finding of the Holy Cross by St. Helena and the consecration, on September 14, 335, of the basilicas built by Constantine on the sites of the Holy Sepulchre and Calvary at Jerusalem.”

This brought into September a particular meditation on the cross of Jesus Christ, and by the 17th century there developed a complementary Marian feast on September 15.

In the 17th century the Servites celebrated a solemn feast of the Seven Sorrows of Our Lady, which in 1817 was extended to the whole Church by Pius VII as a memorial of his sufferings in exile and captivity and of his deliverance through the Blessed Virgin’s intercession.

Furthermore, “Pope St Pius X transferred this feast from the third Sunday of September to this octave-day of Our Lady’s Nativity (September 8th), in 1912.”

Originally this feast was more concerned with Mary’s sufferings throughout her early life, excluding the Passion of Jesus, her Son, but over time it has come to represent all of Mary’s suffering.

On account of these two central feasts September has become known as a month dedicated to Our Lady of Sorrows.

Here are some prayers to help you contemplate the Exultation of the Cross.

But the Prince of Darkness was himself conquered by a tree — the tree of the cross.
Here, an excerpt from the preface to pray with:

You placed the salvation of the human race upon the wood of the cross, so that where death arose, there life might rise again; and the one who conquered on a tree, might also be conquered on a tree: through Christ our Lord. Through whom the Angels praise your majesty, Dominions adore, Powers tremble. Heaven and the Virtues of heaven, and the blessed Seraphim, unite to celebrate together with exultation. Graciously grant, we pray, that our voices may be joined to theirs, in humble praise ...

For another meditation, St. Paul of the Cross invites us:

When you are alone in your room, take your crucifix, kiss its five wounds reverently, tell it to preach to you a little sermon, and then listen to the words of eternal life that it speaks to your heart; listen to the pleading of the thorns, the nails, the precious Blood. Oh, what an eloquent sermon!

As the ancient English poem The Dream of the Rood tells us, as if the Cross itself is speaking:

Now the time has come that I will be honored far and wide by men over the earth and all this glorious creation;
they will pray to this beacon.

On me the Son of God suffered for a while; because of that I am glorious now, towering under the heavens, and I am able to heal each one of those who is in awe of me.

Please support the men seeking to answer God's call to a life of service as a priest for the Archdiocese of Chicago.

Prayer of Generosity

Lord Jesus, teach me to be generous. Teach me to serve as you deserve, To give and not to count the cost, To fight and not to heed the wounds, To labor and not to seek to rest, To give of my self and not ask for a reward, Except the reward of knowing that I am doing your will.

St. Mary Church

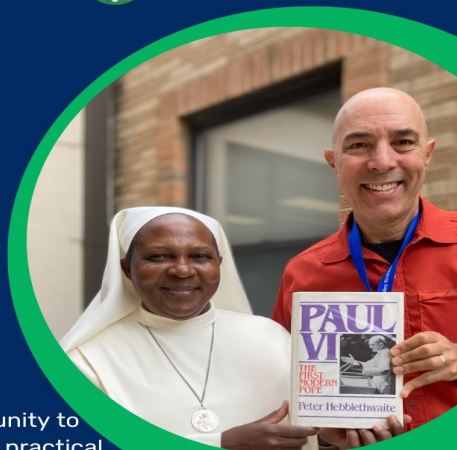

105 Herrick Rd, Riverside

(Refreshments to follow in the Oak Room)

Come and celebrate the Feast of St. Paul VI!

The feast day of St. Paul VI represents both an opportunity to celebrate his apostolic achievements and reflect upon practical ways to put his teachings into practice. This year we are delighted to welcome Thomas Howard, DMin, and Sister Christine Nantaba, IHMR who will identify how our patron:

- Established a firm foundation for evangelization and what Pope Francis calls "A Culture of Encounter".
- Made a historic, first-ever papal visit to Uganda that continues to bear fruit today in the form of numerous vocations and organic growth of local faith communities.

A free-will offering will be taken up at the end of the presentation to support the religious education efforts of Sister Christine's community. Checks can be written to IHMR Sisters in Uganda.

About our speakers

Sr. Christine Nantaba, IHMR

Resides at the Mater Christi convent at the St. Hugh Faith Formation Center. She is part of the Sisters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Reparatrix Ggogonya in Uganda, East Africa.

Listen to Dr. Tom Howard and Sr. Christine Nantaba share with the St. Paul VI Parish Community about our Patron Saint and his connection to Uganda and how it can help our community build our new reality.

Thomas Howard, DMin

Currently the Junior High Religion teacher at St. Mary School. Dr. Howard has nearly 40 years of experience in parish ministry and 10 years in the Archdiocese as a Director of Religious Education.

St Paul VI Parish Action Day Saturday, November 5, 2022

Mark your calendars for November 5th! Parish Action Day is a service day that has been held at St Mary's from 2012 thru 2019. It is sponsored by the Service Outreach Committee and its purpose is to build community and camaraderie with all parishioners as they serve a few hours together to help the needy, the military, and the environment.

We will start the day with a continental breakfast at 8:30 a.m. in the St. Mary Parish Center (gym). At 9:00 a.m. there will be a send-off prayer by the Pastor and then each group will go off to do the service project that they signed up for. There are 8 different project groups to sign up for this year. Please note that each person participating can only sign up for one group since they are all being held simultaneously.

Projects will include packing supplies for the homeless, a Veterans program at Hines VA, environmental landscape work around town, decorating cookies for the homeless, making holiday cards for the military, specialized cleaning in both of our churches, making Random Acts of Kindness notes to distribute around our neighborhoods, sorting coats and clothing, and making after-school snack packs for Catholic Charities.

St. Paul VI Parish will assist you in preparing and customizing the Funeral Mass for your loved one. We are here to be of service to you during your time of sorrow.

Please contact the parish office at 708-447-1020 to make arrangements.

There is a simple outline of choices you may use to personalize the Mass for you and your family. All of these are suggestions; you may choose any sacred music that is familiar or important to you.

Contact Cheryl Skoda at cskoda@stpaulviparish.org for assistance in any musical questions or special requests.

For a complete list of the Outline of Funeral Mass, please visit <https://www.stpaulviparish.org/funerals.html>
