The first Golden Rose of the Shrine of Fatima was granted by Pope Paul VI, on November 21st, 1964, at the end of the third session of the Vatican Council II, having been blessed by the Pope on March 28th, 1965.
During the blessing ceremony, Blessed Paul VI recalled the significance of the Golden Roses that, in its "mystical meaning, represent the joy of the double Jerusalem – Triumphant Church and Militant Church – and the beautiful Flower of Jericho – the Immaculate Virgin -, who is also your Patroness and the joy and the crown of all Saints".
